

Get Road Smart

So you'll always be there.

As a driver, you know that following safety rules and regulations keeps you on the road and earning a paycheck. But it does more than that. Safety compliance also protects everyone on our motorways, including you—to ensure you'll always be there for your loved ones. At the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration, our job is to ensure that safety is Job 1 for everyone in the industry.

That's why we've launched the Get Road Smart campaign as part of our compliance and enforcement program, Compliance, Safety, Accountability (CSA).

When Drivers Get Road Smart

America's roads get safer.

When you travel on America's roadways, you deserve to expect that your trip will be a safe one. More than 5 million truck and bus drivers share America's roads with more than 250 million motorists. That's a lot of drivers, a lot of people, and a lot of vehicles and equipment to keep safe. At the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA), we're driven to making America's roads as safe as possible.

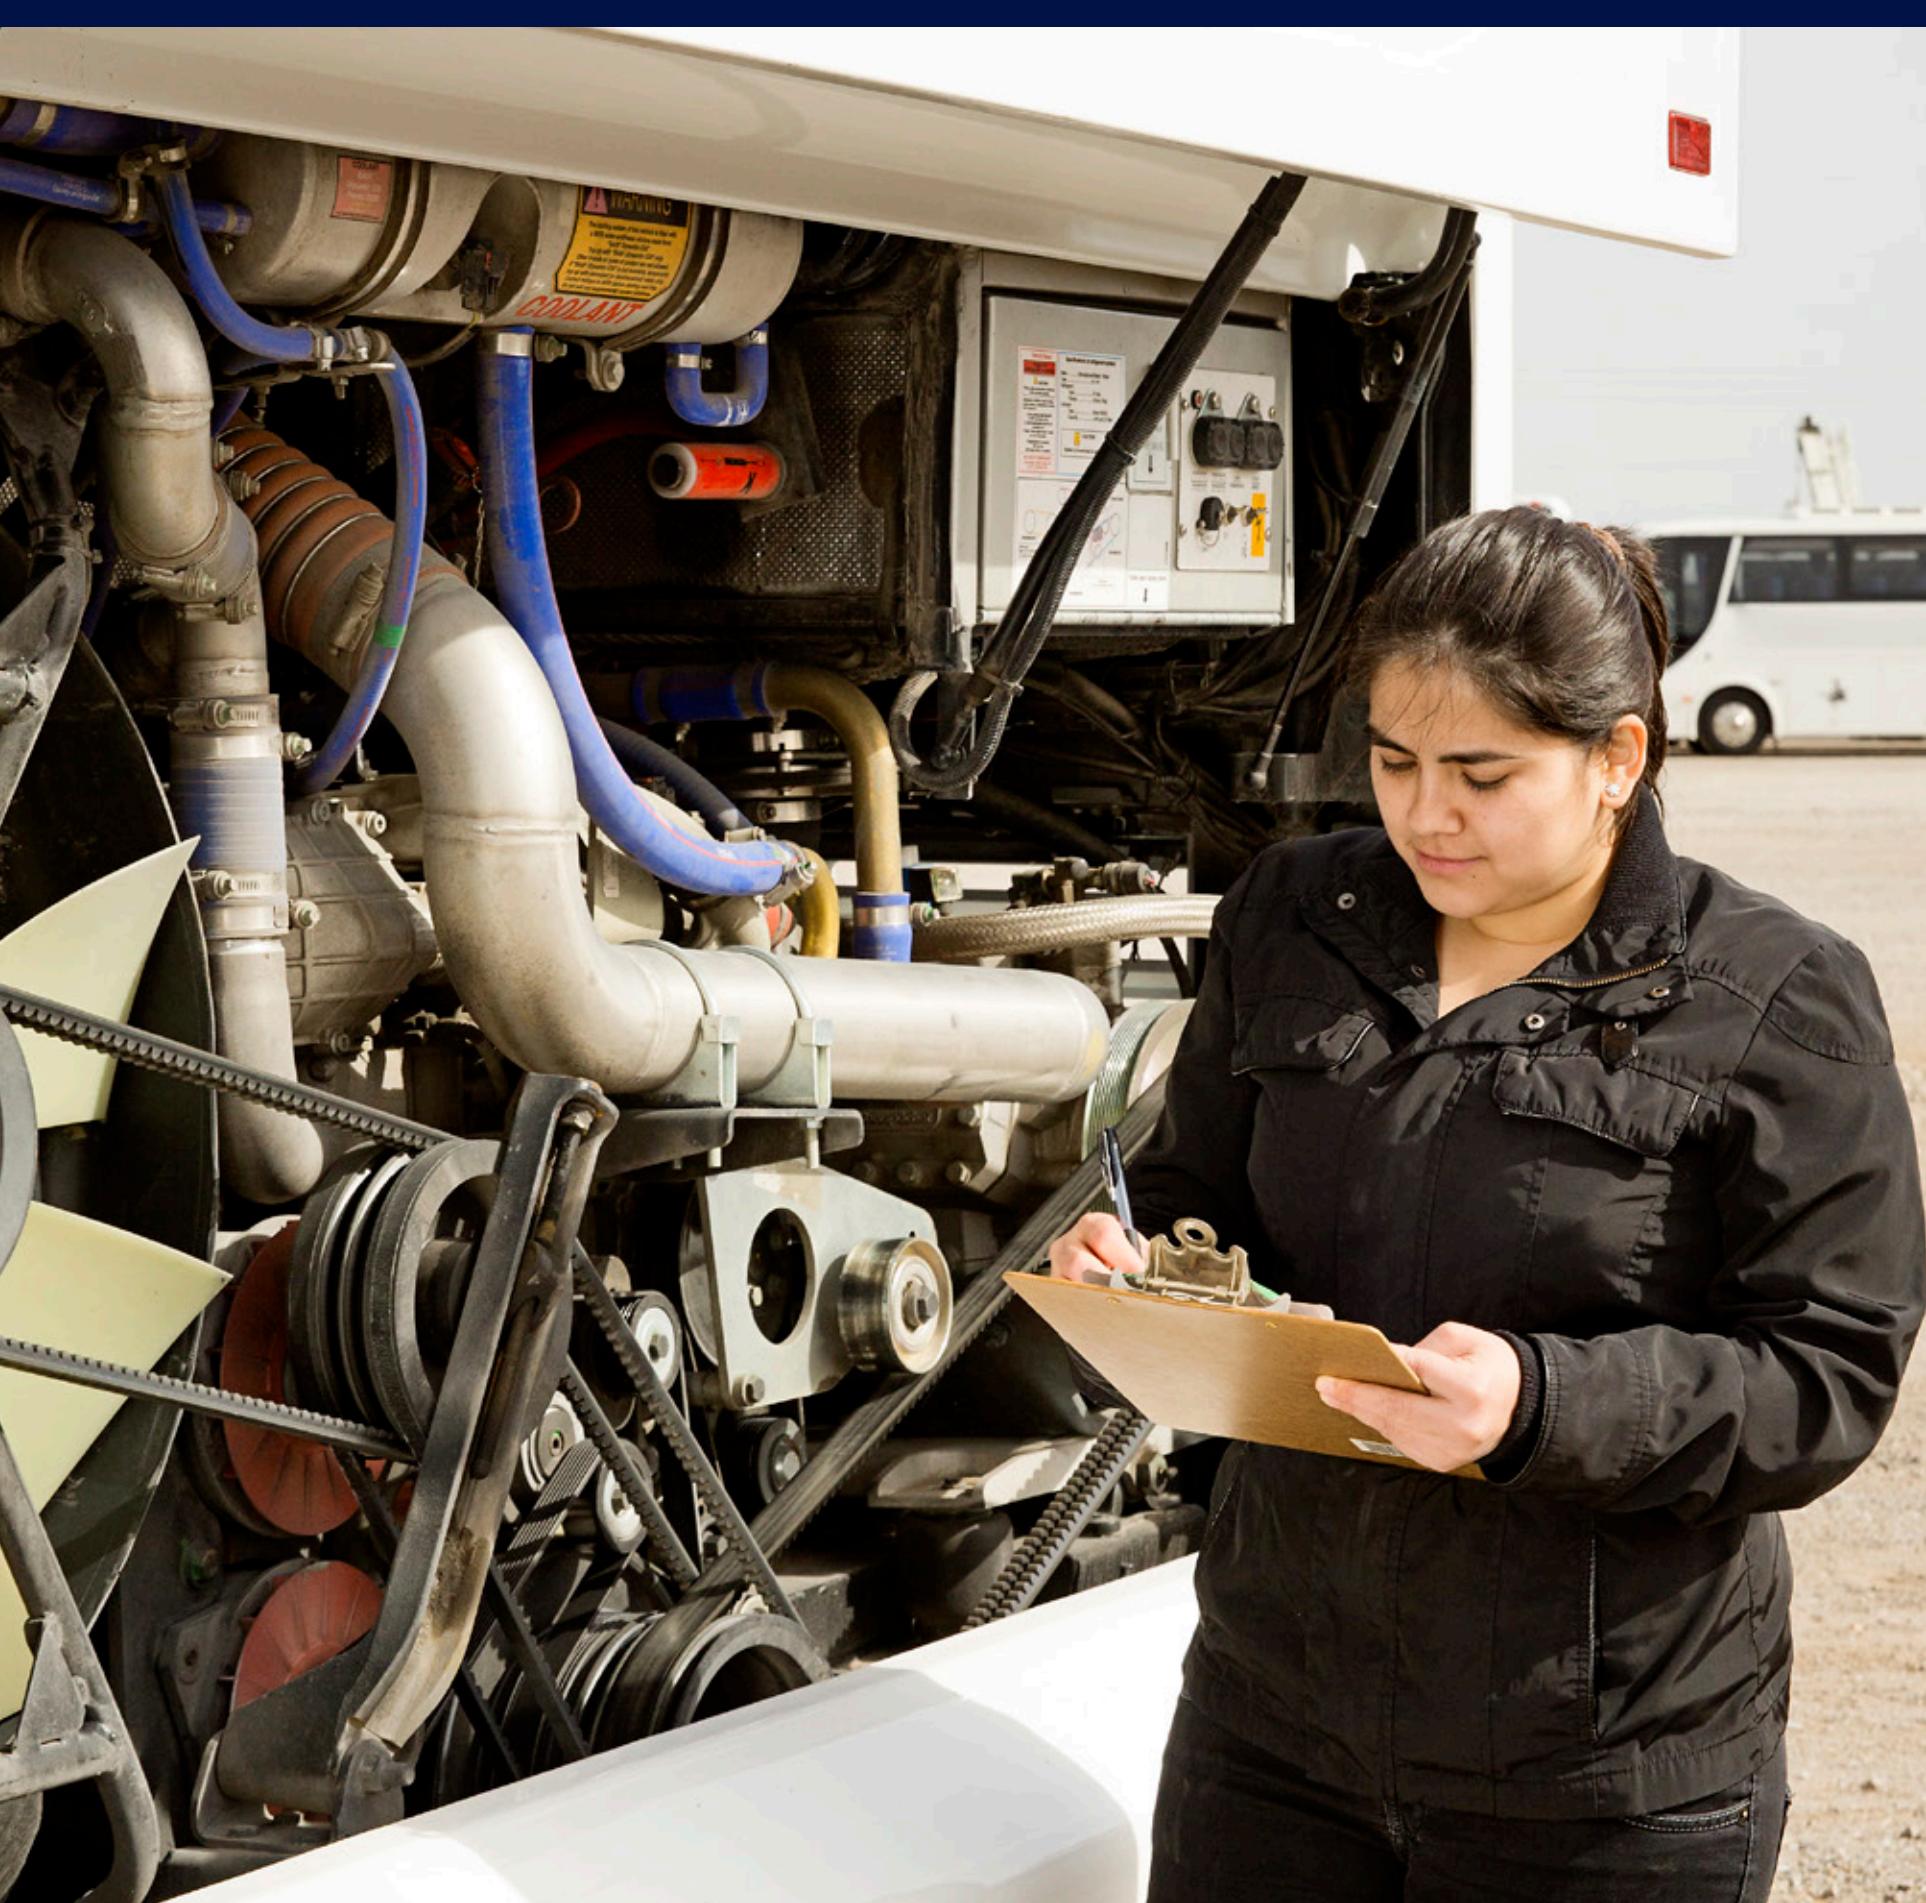

That's why we've launched the Get Road Smart campaign. To learn about FMCSA's Compliance, Safety, Accountability program, and how FMCSA is helping America Get Road Smart, visit us at <http://csa.fmcsa.dot.gov/?poster>
